

Transportation Association of Maryland

tam@taminc.org • 410-533-4245 • www.taminc.org

TAM is a nonprofit association serving over 120 transit agencies, nonprofits, and specialized members with advocacy, training, resources, and support. TAM members significantly contribute to the well-being of the communities they serve in our state.

TAM Members at a Glance

Statewide Excellence

Our members include every local jurisdiction's public transit agency as well as 52 nonprofits providing specialized service

Connecting Marylanders

Our members provide more than 80,000 trips daily - to jobs, medical care, and life necessities.

Growing our Economy

TAM Member Capital and Operating Expenditures support 6,130 jobs and $2.0 billion in economic output

TAM Membership Fast Facts

The majority of TAM member employees are bus drivers, providing direct service.

The average TAM member operates fewer than 30 vehicles in peak service.

Nearly all agencies in Maryland offer both fixed route and demand response service.

Half of all Marylanders who access dialysis care use public paratransit.

Over half of Maryland's transit fleet operates locally outside the MTA.

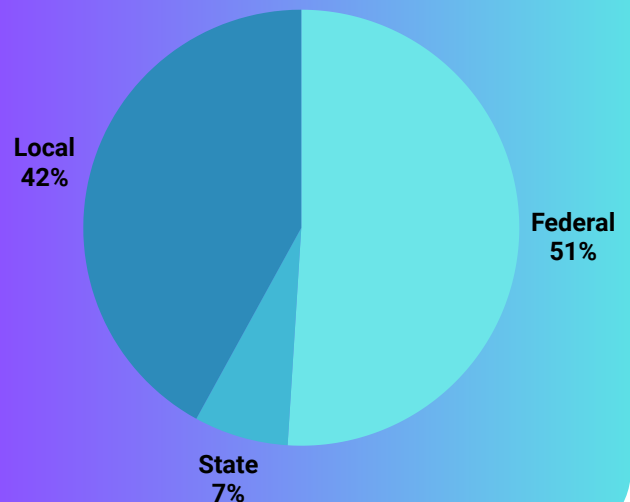

23% of TAM members' bus fleets are past their useful life.

95% of TAM members have service areas under 600 square miles.

MD Local Transit Funding

Transportation Association of Maryland

tam@taminc.org • 410-533-4245 • www.taminc.org

TAM is a nonprofit association serving over 120 transit agencies, nonprofits, and specialized members with advocacy, training, resources, and support. TAM members significantly contribute to the well-being of the communities they serve in our state.

TAM Members at a Glance

Statewide Excellence

Our members include every local jurisdiction's public transit agency as well as 52 nonprofits providing specialized service

Connecting Marylanders

Our members provide more than 80,000 trips daily - to jobs, medical care, and life necessities.

Growing our Economy

TAM Member Capital and Operating Expenditures support 6,130 jobs and $2.0 billion in economic output

MD District One

Over 2 million trips provided by local transit services per year - over 5600 per day

Cecil Transit & Harford Transit LINK have been recognized as our System of the year in the past 5 years

TAM Membership Fast Facts

The majority of TAM member employees are bus drivers, providing direct service.

The average TAM member operates fewer than 30 vehicles in peak service.

Nearly all agencies in Maryland offer both fixed route and demand response service.

Half of all Marylanders who access dialysis care use public paratransit.

Over half of Maryland's transit fleet operates locally outside the MTA.

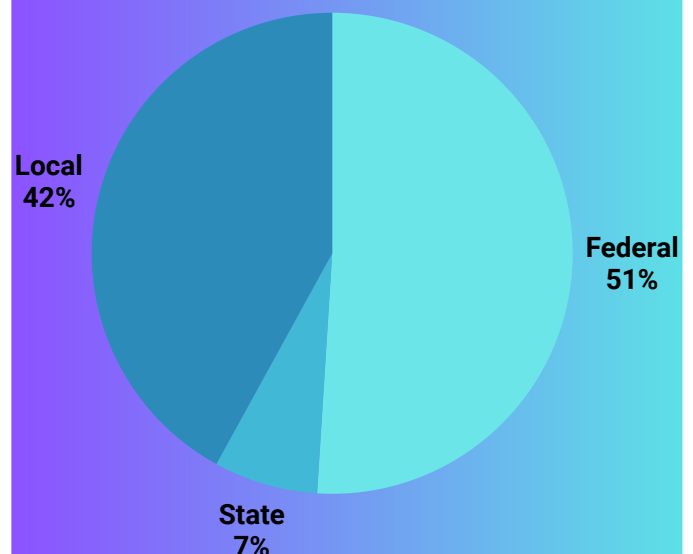

23% of TAM members' bus fleets are past their useful life.

95% of TAM members have service areas under 600 square miles.

MD Local Transit Funding

Transportation Association of Maryland

tam@taminc.org • 410-533-4245 • www.taminc.org

TAM is a nonprofit association serving over 120 transit agencies, nonprofits, and specialized members with advocacy, training, resources, and support. TAM members significantly contribute to the well-being of the communities they serve in our state.

TAM Members at a Glance

Statewide Excellence

Our members include every local jurisdiction's public transit agency as well as 52 nonprofits providing specialized service

Connecting Marylanders

Our members provide more than 80,000 trips daily - to jobs, medical care, and life necessities.

Growing our Economy

TAM Member Capital and Operating Expenditures support 6,130 jobs and $2.0 billion in economic output

MD District Two

Over 190,000 trips provided by local transit services per year.

Baltimore County has been recognized with our Outstanding Program Award for the Towson Loop.

TAM Membership Fast Facts

The majority of TAM member employees are bus drivers, providing direct service.

The average TAM member operates fewer than 30 vehicles in peak service.

Nearly all agencies in Maryland offer both fixed route and demand response service.

Half of all Marylanders who access dialysis care use public paratransit.

Over half of Maryland's transit fleet operates locally outside the MTA.

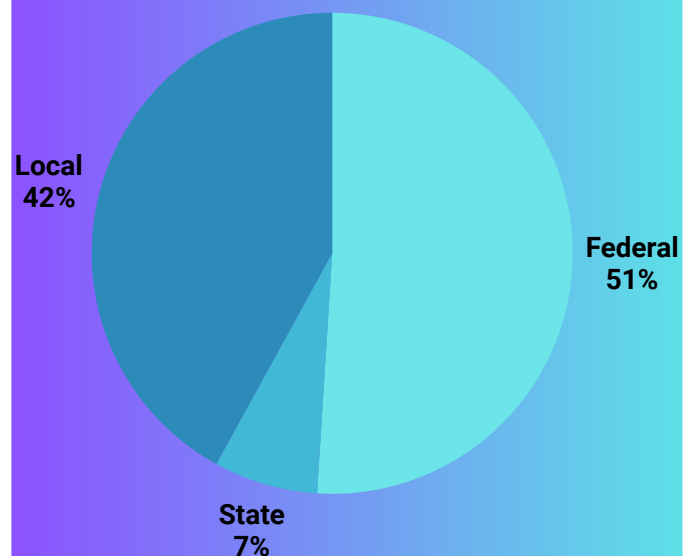

23% of TAM members' bus fleets are past their useful life.

95% of TAM members have service areas under 600 square miles.

MD Local Transit Funding

Transportation Association of Maryland

tam@taminc.org • 410-533-4245 • www.taminc.org

TAM is a nonprofit association serving over 120 transit agencies, nonprofits, and specialized members with advocacy, training, resources, and support. TAM members significantly contribute to the well-being of the communities they serve in our state.

TAM Members at a Glance

Statewide Excellence

Our members include every local jurisdiction's public transit agency as well as 52 nonprofits providing specialized service

Connecting Marylanders

Our members provide more than 80,000 trips daily - to jobs, medical care, and life necessities.

Growing our Economy

TAM Member Capital and Operating Expenditures support 6,130 jobs and $2.0 billion in economic output

MD District Three

Over 1.5 million trips provided by local transit services per year.

Howard County's RTA recognized for outstanding Transit Innovation for their automatic passenger notification system

TAM Membership Fast Facts

The majority of TAM member employees are bus drivers, providing direct service.

The average TAM member operates fewer than 30 vehicles in peak service.

Nearly all agencies in Maryland offer both fixed route and demand response service.

Half of all Marylanders who access dialysis care use public paratransit.

Over half of Maryland's transit fleet operates locally outside the MTA.

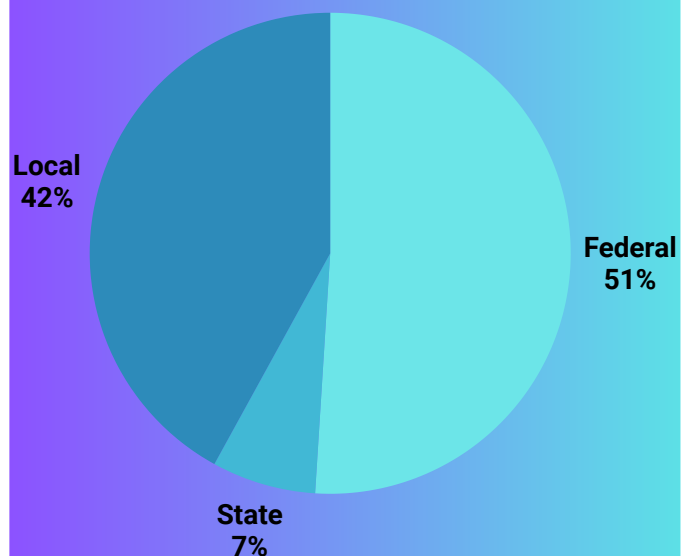

23% of TAM members' bus fleets are past their useful life.

95% of TAM members have service areas under 600 square miles.

MD Local Transit Funding

Transportation Association of Maryland

tam@taminc.org • 410-533-4245 • www.taminc.org

TAM is a nonprofit association serving over 120 transit agencies, nonprofits, and specialized members with advocacy, training, resources, and support. TAM members significantly contribute to the well-being of the communities they serve in our state.

TAM Members at a Glance

Statewide Excellence

Our members include every local jurisdiction's public transit agency as well as 52 nonprofits providing specialized service

Connecting Marylanders

Our members provide more than 80,000 trips daily - to jobs, medical care, and life necessities.

Growing our Economy

TAM Member Capital and Operating Expenditures support 6,130 jobs and $2.0 billion in economic output

MD District Four

Over 1.8 million trips provided by local transit services per year.

Prince George's County's TheBus was honored with TAM's System of the Year Award in 2022

TAM Membership Fast Facts

The majority of TAM member employees are bus drivers, providing direct service.

The average TAM member operates fewer than 30 vehicles in peak service.

Nearly all agencies in Maryland offer both fixed route and demand response service.

Half of all Marylanders who access dialysis care use public paratransit.

Over half of Maryland's transit fleet operates locally outside the MTA.

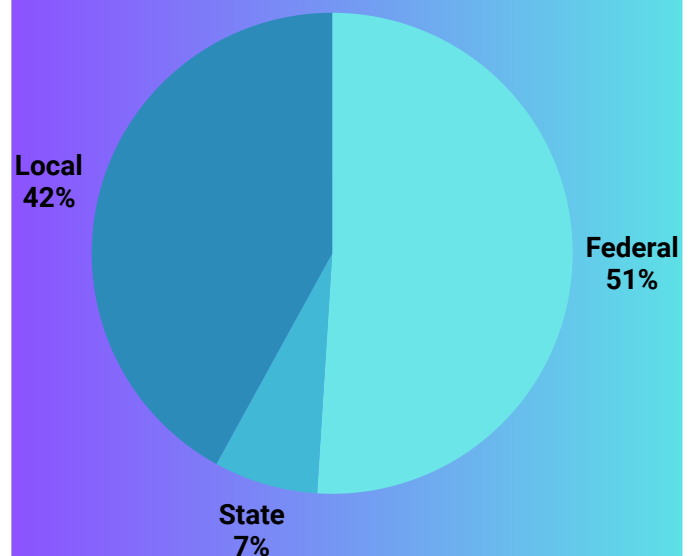

23% of TAM members' bus fleets are past their useful life.

95% of TAM members have service areas under 600 square miles.

MD Local Transit Funding

Transportation Association of Maryland

tam@taminc.org • 410-533-4245 • www.taminc.org

TAM is a nonprofit association serving over 120 transit agencies, nonprofits, and specialized members with advocacy, training, resources, and support. TAM members significantly contribute to the well-being of the communities they serve in our state.

TAM Members at a Glance

Statewide Excellence

Our members include every local jurisdiction's public transit agency as well as 52 nonprofits providing specialized service

Connecting Marylanders

Our members provide more than 80,000 trips daily - to jobs, medical care, and life necessities.

Growing our Economy

TAM Member Capital and Operating Expenditures support 6,130 jobs and $2.0 billion in economic output

MD District Five

Over 2.75 million trips provided by local transit services per year.

Prince George's County's TheBus was honored with TAM's System of the Year Award in 2022

TAM Membership Fast Facts

The majority of TAM member employees are bus drivers, providing direct service.

The average TAM member operates fewer than 30 vehicles in peak service.

Nearly all agencies in Maryland offer both fixed route and demand response service.

Half of all Marylanders who access dialysis care use public paratransit.

Over half of Maryland's transit fleet operates locally outside the MTA.

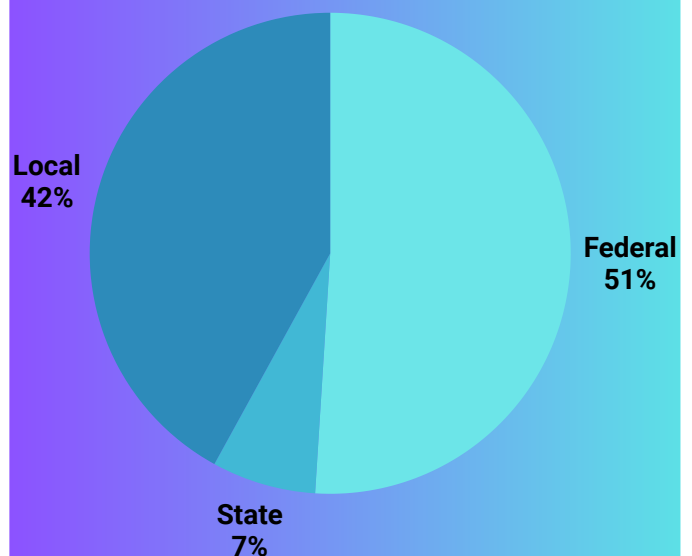

23% of TAM members' bus fleets are past their useful life.

95% of TAM members have service areas under 600 square miles.

MD Local Transit Funding

Transportation Association of Maryland

tam@taminc.org • 410-533-4245 • www.taminc.org

TAM is a nonprofit association serving over 120 transit agencies, nonprofits, and specialized members with advocacy, training, resources, and support. TAM members significantly contribute to the well-being of the communities they serve in our state.

TAM Members at a Glance

Statewide Excellence

Our members include every local jurisdiction's public transit agency as well as 52 nonprofits providing specialized service

Connecting Marylanders

Our members provide more than 80,000 trips daily - to jobs, medical care, and life necessities.

Growing our Economy

TAM Member Capital and Operating Expenditures support 6,130 jobs and $2.0 billion in economic output

MD District Six

Nearly 1.3 million trips provided by local transit services per year.

8 Non-

TAM Membership Fast Facts

The majority of TAM member employees are bus drivers, providing direct service.

The average TAM member operates fewer than 30 vehicles in peak service.

Nearly all agencies in Maryland offer both fixed route and demand response service.

Half of all Marylanders who access dialysis care use public paratransit.

Over half of Maryland's transit fleet operates locally outside the MTA.

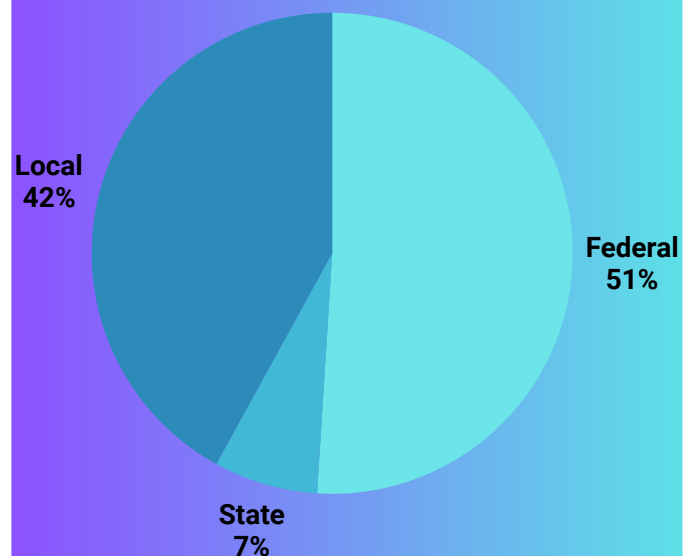

23% of TAM members' bus fleets are past their useful life.

95% of TAM members have service areas under 600 square miles.

MD Local Transit Funding

Transportation Association of Maryland

tam@taminc.org • 410-533-4245 • www.taminc.org

TAM is a nonprofit association serving over 120 transit agencies, nonprofits, and specialized members with advocacy, training, resources, and support. TAM members significantly contribute to the well-being of the communities they serve in our state.

TAM Members at a Glance

Statewide Excellence

Our members include every local jurisdiction's public transit agency as well as 52 nonprofits providing specialized service

Connecting Marylanders

Our members provide more than 80,000 trips daily - to jobs, medical care, and life necessities.

Growing our Economy

TAM Member Capital and Operating Expenditures support 6,130 jobs and $2.0 billion in economic output

MD District Seven

Over 1.3 million trips provided by local transit services per year.

The Charm City Circulator provides free service with over 100 stops along four routes in Baltimore City.

TAM Membership Fast Facts

The majority of TAM member employees are bus drivers, providing direct service.

The average TAM member operates fewer than 30 vehicles in peak service.

Nearly all agencies in Maryland offer both fixed route and demand response service.

Half of all Marylanders who access dialysis care use public paratransit.

Over half of Maryland's transit fleet operates locally outside the MTA.

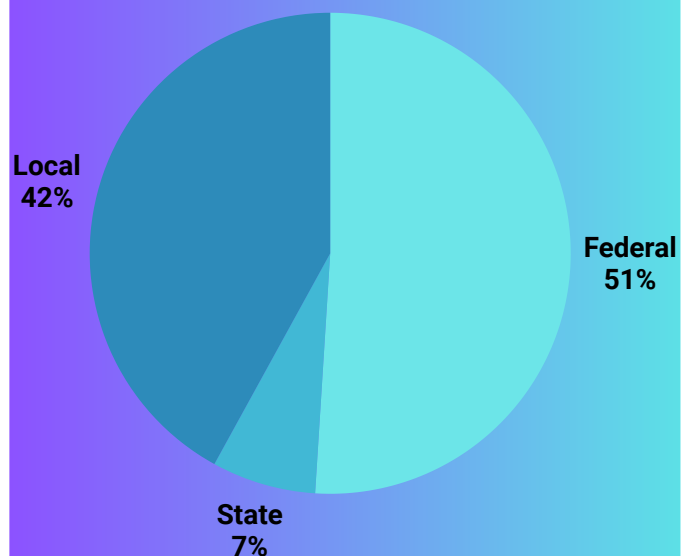

23% of TAM members' bus fleets are past their useful life.

95% of TAM members have service areas under 600 square miles.

MD Local Transit Funding

Transportation Association of Maryland

tam@taminc.org • 410-533-4245 • www.taminc.org

TAM is a nonprofit association serving over 120 transit agencies, nonprofits, and specialized members with advocacy, training, resources, and support. TAM members significantly contribute to the well-being of the communities they serve in our state.

TAM Members at a Glance

Statewide Excellence

Our members include every local jurisdiction's public transit agency as well as 52 nonprofits providing specialized service

Connecting Marylanders

Our members provide more than 80,000 trips daily - to jobs, medical care, and life necessities.

Growing our Economy

TAM Member Capital and Operating Expenditures support 6,130 jobs and $2.0 billion in economic output

MD District Eight

Over 14.3 million trips provided by local transit services per year.

Montgomery County driver Antonio Lucas won our Driver of the Year Award in 2024 for saving an elderly woman's life.

TAM Membership Fast Facts

The majority of TAM member employees are bus drivers, providing direct service.

The average TAM member operates fewer than 30 vehicles in peak service.

Nearly all agencies in Maryland offer both fixed route and demand response service.

Half of all Marylanders who access dialysis care use public paratransit.

Over half of Maryland's transit fleet operates locally outside the MTA.

23% of TAM members' bus fleets are past their useful life.

95% of TAM members have service areas under 600 square miles.

MD Local Transit Funding

